

Specific-candidate wording. Percentage-point change in the probability of naming one candidate when the voter's priority is added to the biography, by profile (one issue statement each) and configuration.